THE SITUATION

The gunboats have been driven back and defeated on the Tennessee river...

Passengers by the evening train report the capture of several wagons and prisoners on Wednesday.

The abundance of Confederate currency is not the only cause of its cheapness.

The price of gold is an exercise on the monetary affairs of the country...

When, then, this demand for gold? Undoubtedly it springs chiefly from the spirit of speculation...

The proposition, which comes from the Memphis Journal & Co., is to present the country a monthly periodical...

The radical Republicans have barely escaped defeat in New Hampshire...

Is this necessary? Not at all. It does not relieve the needful wants of the people...

BY GRAPE-VINE AND OTHERWISE

Oh! the heroism of our noble Southern girls! How the pages of history will glow with the stories of their patient sufferings...

I have just received a letter from a lady friend from the North of Cumberland river...

The brave Yankees are still committing outrages upon the defenseless citizens who refuse to persecute themselves to the despotic powers of Lincolnism.

Three young ladies (the Misses Elms), daughters of a respectable farmer in the neighborhood of Goulettsville...

Another friend from Sumner writes: "I read that the war will soon be over for we are almost a day's march from here in Sumner."

The latest on "ditto from the front" is to the effect that our boys are full of fight...

The police of Richmond are fully occupied in quelling disturbances at the progressive, where rebel whisky is sold.

The Marion Commonweal says that the wheat crop in that section is unusually promising...

Col. John C. Burch, formerly of the Nashville Union and American, has been appointed Acting Adjutant General under Gen. Pillow.

We have been furnished by Capt. W. W. Calvert with files of Cincinnati and Louisville papers...

The associated press of the South has as an experienced telegraphist in the front of our army in Middle Tennessee...
